

Joint action on emerging and existing trends: Reducing health harms associated with alcohol and drugs
Monday | 29th February 2016 | 10.00 – 15.40 | Guildhall, London

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Time	Title	Speaker
09:15	Registration and networking
10:00	LDAPF Welcome	Hugh Morris, Chairman, LDAPF
10:05	Welcome and introduction	Alison Keating, Head of Alcohol and Drugs, PHE London
10:10	Purpose of today	Yvonne Doyle, Regional Director, PHE London
Morning session: Emerging health harms
10:20	Challenges for primary care	Dr. Steve Brinksman, GP & SMMGP Clinical Lead
10:30	Drug related deaths	Peter Burkinshaw, Alcohol, Drugs & Tobacco, PHE
10:50	Novel psychoactive substances - "Neptune 2"	Dr Owen Bowden-Jones, Clinical Advisor, Alcohol Drugs & Tobacco, PHE
11:10	Novel psychoactive substances: emerging trends from the wastewater studies and beyond.	Dr. John Ramsey, St Georges/University of London.
11:30	Chemsex	Dave Stewart, Substance Misuse Lead, GUM.
11:50	Coffee break
12:05	Alcohol and health	Dr Steve Brinksman, GP, SMMGP Clinical Lead.
12:25	Hep C and Operational Delivery Networks	Dr. Ashley Brown, Consultant Hepatologist St. Mary's and Hammersmith Hospitals.
12:45	Panel questions
13:00	LUNCH
Afternoon session: Societal impact
14:00	The wider impact of substance misuse (families and care services)	Claire Mason, University of Lancaster.
14:20	Beyond "dual diagnosis" – substance use and mental health	Speaker to be confirmed.
14:40	Criminal justice, impact of substance misuse	Dr. Éamonn O'Moore, Director of Health & Justice and UK Collaborating Centre, WHO Health in Prisons Programme.
15:00	Panel questions
15:15	Ways forward, next steps – table discussions.
15:30	Final comments and close	Alison Keating, PHE London.